Re: 2023 Party Call — New York Republican State Committee

Attached as "Attachment A" is the party call for the judicial delegates and alternate judicial delegates to be elected at the 2023 primary election for the Republican Party. These allocations were calculated and determined in accordance with Rule 1, Article VIII of the Rules of the New York Republican State Committee. The number of alternate judicial delegates is equal to the number of judicial delegates in each unit of representation.

Additionally, Republican state committee members are to be elected at the 2023 primary election. These members of the state committee are elected pursuant to Rule 1, Article I of the Rules of the New York Republican State Committee which reads as follows:

ARTICLE I — MEMBERS

Rule 1 — Membership Requirements

The unit of representation shall be by Assembly District. Members will be chosen from Assembly Districts subject to the following conditions:

- A (1) Where Assembly Districts are coterminous within a county, they shall have two members.
- (2) Where an Assembly District is made up of two or more whole counties, each county shall have two members.
- (3) Where an Assembly District is made up of parts of counties or a combination of a whole county or counties and part or parts of another county or counties, each county and part county unit shall have two members.

- B Each member shall be an enrolled voter of the Republican Party within the unit from which each member is elected.
- C Representation by sexes from each unit shall be equal.

In sum, each whole county or part of a county within an Assembly District shall elect two (2) state committeepersons (one (1) woman and one (1) man).
